LAFAVETTE, Ind., Sept. 27.—Early this morning, a Lake Eric and Western freight train, east-bound, broke in two on a heavy grade near town. The deon a heavy grade near town. The detached portion rushed back into the city. The Big Four passenger train from Chicago stood in the Union Depot. and Yardmaster Brighty, seeing the danger, threw a switch in time to, perhaps, save scores of lives by turning the wild train onto a side track.

The runaway cars, however, crashed into the Union Depot, entirely wrecking it, and forcing a way through South street into the Folterall Company's shoe factory. A cab driver, named Washburn, is fatally injured, and it is feared other victims are buried in the debris, as the passenger depot was thronged with people a few moments before the accident.
